

Exploring Characteristics of Service Users

- Multiple service users & social care only users are generally older than other groups.
- Multiple service users tend to be more frail than single service users (who are in turn more frail than non-users).
- Difference between groups are less evident in the distribution of #LTCs.

